

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 16-27 and 29-33 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to teach or to fairly suggest an apparatus for retaining an acoustic device comprising :

a trim panel and an attachment member, wherein the attachment member includes at least one mounting portion,

and wherein the at least one mounting portion is constructed so as to include:

a first end and second end;

a side surface between the first end and the second end;

a ledge surface between the first and second end and which extends in a perpendicular orientation from the side surface, and wherein the side surface includes a ramping and increasing height such that the first end of the mounting portion is in a greater height than the second end of the mounting portion.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Thompson (US 4,326,599) teaches a speaker retained with ramping parts ("25" in figure 1).
